

PLANS REVIEW FOR VISITORS

Army Feature for New Mexico Day Monday Will Be Cavalry Maneuvers.

Details of the army review which will be held at 11:30 o'clock Monday afternoon at Ft. Bliss, by Brig. Gen. George Bell, Jr., as a part of the New Mexico day program and in honor of Gen. Francisco Murguía, commander of the Chihuahua military zone and Gen. José Murguía, of Juárez, and their staff officers as well as Maj. Gen. J. J. Pershing and Gov. W. E. Lindsey, of New Mexico, were announced Friday in a general bulletin issued to troops of the district.

The review will be held at a special parade grounds at Ft. Bliss located directly south of the School of Mines building. A reviewing stand is being erected for the review by the military authorities and the reviewing ground will be sprinkled Monday in order that the dust will be laid for the review.

Works Out Series of Maneuvers.
Gen. George Bell, Jr., has worked out a series of maneuvers for the troops during the review. The six regiments of the United States Cavalry composing the cavalry division will be formed in line of squadron masses at the beginning of the review. The troops will then pass by the reviewing stand at a trot, formed in column of squadrons, in line of squadron masses at the review the troops will pass the reviewing stand at a gallop, formed in column of squadrons, in line of platoon masses. The machine gun squadron, which is attached to the cavalry division will also pass the reviewing stand at both a trot and gallop.

Following the review, the cavalry division will reform on the parade grounds about 100 yards from the reviewing stand. The first brigade of cavalry, followed in succession by the other cavalry brigades, will then execute a series of movements which follow:

Saber and Pistol Charges.
A simulated attack, having as its object an imaginary cavalry enemy in front. The troops will advance on its imaginary enemy and at a point about 50 yards from the imaginary enemy a charge will be launched. In front of the reviewing officer, the rally call will be given and the regiment will advance to a point directly in front of the reviewing officer, where it will be halted. With the colonel at the head of the regiment, the reviewing officer will be saluted and then the regiment will move off the field.

The second regiment will make a simulated pistol attack, carrying out the same maneuver which was conducted by the first cavalry regiment.

PLANS OUT FOR NEW MEXICO DAY

Commerce Chamber Takes Leading Part in Reception of Visitors.

Next Monday was designated as "New Mexico Day" in El Paso, at a special meeting of the board of directors of the chamber of commerce Friday night, and a celebration will be arranged by the chamber to do honor to Gov. W. E. Lindsey, the New Mexico legislature, the supreme court and a large New Mexico delegation which will attend the ceremonies to be held here in connection with the presentation of the New Mexico legislature medal to Maj. Gen. John J. Pershing and the expression of appreciation and thanks of the New Mexican officials and people to the state's national guard soldiers for services on the border.

To W. A. Hawkins, of this city, a member of the New Mexico committee on the celebration, the chamber directors offered their entire cooperation in the entertainment of the distinguished New Mexico guests.

To Decorate Streets.
The chamber of commerce will have business streets decorated with the New Mexico flag and the New Mexico state seal. The decorations will be in place by 10:30 o'clock, after their arrival at 10:30 o'clock, decorated assistance will be given to battery A, New Mexico field artillery, in providing a camp luncheon for the visitors at the artillery camp at Ft. Bliss and in arranging the entertainment for the ceremonies in the evening.

Hawkins Tells of Program.
Mr. Hawkins outlined to the directors the program which had been arranged for Monday, when Gen. Pershing will receive the medal, and the thanks of New Mexico people will be extended to Col. E. C. Abbott, First New Mexico Infantry, Capt. Charles DeBremont, New Mexico field artillery, and about 10 officers of the national guard.

Mr. Hawkins told of the postponement of the ceremonies which had been arranged for in Santa Fe, N. M., February 22, caused by the deaths of Gov. E. C. Baca and Gen. Frederick Punnett, and then of the decision of the New Mexico people to hold the meeting at El Paso. He said that as the New Mexico guard would be mustered out within a few days, it was considered advisable by Gov. Lindsey to hold the meeting at El Paso at once. Gen. Pershing and Gen. Bell had approved the plan and Gen. Bell had given him every assistance in arranging a program, he explained.

Program Outlined.
The tentative program which Mr. Hawkins and Gen. Bell outlined follows:

Gov. Lindsey and the New Mexico delegation will be met by a troop of U. S. cavalry at the union station when they arrive at 10:30 o'clock Monday and will be escorted to Pioneer plaza. At

TO MUSTER OUT
BATT. A BY 21ST

Orders Come From San Antonio to Send Famous Roswell Artillery Home.

Orders to muster out battery A, New Mexico field artillery, commanded by Capt. Charles DeBremont, of Roswell, which is stationed at Fort Bliss, before March 21, were received at the headquarters of the El Paso military district from the southern department headquarters Thursday. The battery will be mustered out at Ft. Bliss. The date has not been fixed, but it was stated by army officers that it would probably not take place until after next Monday, when the battery will assist in entertaining Gov. W. E. Lindsey, of New Mexico, members of the New Mexico legislature and prominent New Mexico citizens who will come to El Paso to attend the ceremonies to be held in connection with the presentation of the New Mexico legislature medal to Maj. Gen. John J. Pershing.

Part of Fifth Field Regiment.
The New Mexico battery, which is considered one of the leading artillery organizations in the United States, has been stationed at El Paso since last summer. Since it has been encamped here it has been attached to the Fifth U. S. Field Artillery.

Capt. DeBremont, a former Swiss officer, is expected to be the next adjutant general of the state of New Mexico. He recently declined an offer of the position, but New Mexico officials have said that Gov. Lindsey will prevail upon him to accept the position. Capt. DeBremont is a farmer and sheep raiser and resides near Roswell.

the plaza a military band will serenade them for five minutes and from there the motorcycle company of the U. S. army will escort them to the camp of battery A at Ft. Bliss, where the governor and delegation will be entertained at a camp luncheon by Capt. Charles DeBremont and the New Mexico artillerymen. Capt. Lindsey and other New Mexico officials will make short addresses at the luncheon.

To Witness Polo and Review.
At 2 o'clock the party will proceed to the parade grounds, where a polo game between the polo teams of two cavalry regiments will be held. Following the polo game, an artillery review and a cavalry review will be held by Gen. Bell.

McNary to Give Dinner.
After the Ft. Bliss entertainment the governor's party and Gen. Pershing and Gen. Bell will be entertained at dinner at Hotel Paso del Norte by Mr. and Mrs. James G. McNary, and the judges of the supreme court of New Mexico and the judges of the El Paso bar will be entertained at dinner.

Medal Ceremony at Country Club.
At 8 o'clock Monday night the ceremonies at which Gen. Pershing's medal will be presented by the governor and the New Mexico guardsmen will receive the expression of appreciation from the New Mexicans will be held at the El Paso Country Club. A band concert will be given during the entertainment. After the formal ceremonies, at which Gov. Lindsey, Maj. Gen. J. J. Pershing, Mayor Tom Lea and others will make addresses, a dance will be held.

New Mexico Committee.
The committee arranged for the New Mexico end of the celebration is composed of John Clark, president of the county; Maj. H. H. Lindsey, of Santa Fe; W. A. Hawkins and former Gov. George Curry. It was decided that San Francisco street, Pioneer plaza, North Oregon street, through which the New Mexico delegation will pass, will be decorated.

Give Artillerymen $250.
An appropriation of $250 from the budget fund was voted to the New Mexico artillerymen on a motion from director H. M. Andrews to assist in providing luncheon at the battery camp, and arrangements were made to provide transportation to and from Ft. Bliss for the New Mexicans and also to assist in the reception of the visitors and their entertainment at the Country Club.

Committees Are Appointed.
Vice president R. L. Farrar, who presided at the meeting, appointed H. Y. Ellis and W. H. Shilton on the decoration committee; W. A. Hawkins, J. W. Kirkpatrick and T. H. Rogers, transportation committee. The entertainment committee was selected from the military committee of the chamber of commerce and is composed of J. A. Happer, E. S. Stewart and W. A. Hawkins.

Directors on Reception Committee.
The board of directors of the chamber of commerce will act as a reception committee with Mayor Lea, city officials, military authorities and others and will meet the New Mexicans at the union station and with their families, will assist at the reception at the Country Club.

Guests Expected, 500.
It is expected that at least 500 New Mexico guests will attend the celebration. Col. Abbott has wired Mr. Hawkins that he and some of his officers will be in attendance and Gov. Lindsey has said word that he and his family and four of the colonels on his staff will come from Santa Fe. In addition there
